Something extraordinary...

is coming to life...

all across Canada!

Something extraordinary is coming to life all across Canada

Ordinary people are doing extraordinary things that are radically transforming churches, schools, businesses governments, communities, cities, and the nation. Many pastors are seeing beyond their calling to transform an individual church or parish to see their congregation as being one part of the larger church of the city and province which has a calling to disciple the nation. Many leaders in business, education and government are going beyond being good examples in their professions to bringing the wisdom and creativity of heaven into their vocations. Thousands of students are bringing the peace of God to Canada's schools by learning how to reorder their values. Church, prayer and marketplace ministries in Canada are responding to the need to work more closely together in a common calling to transform the heart of the nation - "the marketplace."

Canada is moving toward being a nation influenced and blessed by the presence and power of God on display continuously within and beyond her borders.

The Canadian National Gathering for Nation Transformation will be the birthing place of a most significant movement to change our nation for the better together.
